CONNECTICUT TEAM

FINISHED FOURTH Was 37 Points Behind New Hampshire -Massachusetts Gets First for Fifth

For the fifth consecutive time the rifles of the Massachusetts military marksmen scored "high guns" and carried off the New England interstate match, the feature of the annual tournament of the New England Military Rifle essociation, at Wakefield, Mass., Friday. Added to these and others was second place in the army and navy match, the Massachusetts team grand aggregate of 3,608 sufficing to play them shead of all the entries in this match except the United States navy's first team. The shooting of the latter marksmen, as shown in their total of 3,608, was a remarkable but not a record exhibition. The Massachusetts state militia team gione of the five state teams competing in the interstate match was entered in the army and navy match.

A skirmish run was the last event of the interstate match. It developed several good scores, both team and individual.

The scores for the skirmish run and determined the several good scores, both team and individual.

The scores for the skirmleh run and the grand total for the interstate and army and savy matches of the first four teams were:

INTERSTATE MATCH. Skirmish Run.Grand Total. Maine 1033 New Hampshire 2647 Connecticut 1049

When shooting was resumed Friday the Massachusetts team, which has won the trophy every year since it was first offered four years ago, was again in the lead, and the Bay State militamen were much elated over the prospect of adding a fifth plate to the handsome prize.

was cutclassed by the navy team in Thursday's shooting.

At the 1,000 yard range for the interstate trophy the shooting was erratic, owing to the wind and the sweitering weather. The temperature was 120 degrees at the range. The first navy team made the highest score at this range, although the team was shooting in the army and navy section of the match.

Pedestrians sought sheller to get away from the firsce blow, and from the dust that was blinding until the rain came.

At 3.45 the storm had passed over and the sky was clear.

The barge E. N. Conklin, at anchor in the harbor, dragged her anchor and smashed into the steam yacht Narwhal, owned by C. H. Osgood. Little or no damage was done.

The scores at this range of both sections of the match follow: Militia teams—Massachusetts 494, total 2106; Maine 474, total 2013; Rhode Island 455, total 1879; New Hampshire 443, total 2027; Connecticut 441, total 1996, Army and navy section—United States navy first team 487, total 2119; United States first team 487, total 2119; United States navy second team 506, total 2079; Naval academy 475, total 2057; battleship Missouri 391, total 1742.

During the afternoon the teams entered in this match went to the 200 yard rapid fire range and from there to the skirmish run.

Capt. F. W. Allen of the ordnance department made 16 straight bullseyes at the 600 yard range during the Governor Quinby re-entry match Friday, displacing Capt. S. W. Wise of the Sixth Massachusetts, who had 15 bullseyes to his credit.

Musician George W. Chesley of the match, made a new range record with 14 consecutive bullseyes. The other prize winners were Sergt. C. W. Huddleson, C. A. C., 48; Midshipman Walter Smith, Naval academy, 48; Capt. C. F. Barker, First New Hampshire, 47; Capt. F. W. Allen, ordnance department. Massachusetts, 46; Midshipman C. W. Brown, Naval academy, 48; Capt. S. W. Wise, Sixth Massachusetts, 46; Private G. F. Gibson, Sixth Massachusetts, 46; Private G. F. Gibson, Sixth Massachusetts, 46; Musician George W. Chesley of Company D. Second Connecticut, won the small bore match by a score of 97. This match was shot Thursday evening at 50 yards under the electric lights. The announcement of the winner was made Friday.

On the Connecticut team Captain Hamilton shot as substitute for Lieutenant Coleman of this city.

The team hopes for better results at Camp Perry, as it is in the third division and it is considered it should make near the top.

Mr. Lallie and Howard Nugent went out after blackfish and brought home three, the largest measuring 26 inches long and 15 inches girth.

The sudden squall of Friday afternoon caught the camp boat out on the cove, but all langed safely, although drenched. Considerable damage was done to the equipment. The big awning over the dining table was torn through the middle and every eyelet torn out on one side. It cannot be used again this season. The rest tent was blown to the ground. The Bucks tent had the ridgepole broken in two, but the big tent escaped with only an extension fly torn.

No one was hurt and all are still happy and enjoying the camp life to the full.

Time—Boats Dragged Anchor—Hottest of the Season.

Friday was the hottast and the most disagreeable day of the season. If you don't believe it, ask your neighbor.

Lack of any relief from the storm which passed south of the city during the afternoon without touching here, preceded by the hot wave and the prevalence of high humidity, made it the most disagreeable day of the year in the center of the city.

The humidity was as high as 55 per cent, however, which was not the case on the former dates, and so all things considered the conditions were the most oppressive of the year.

Everybody in the center of the city suffered from the heat, more or less; not a few were tuckered.

The hot wave will remain here for the next few days, but the temperature will not go any higher and will probably drop a little, according to the weather observations.

The disturbance which has been moving this way for the past four days and which it was expected would give rain here Friday passed out the St. Lawrence valley Thursday night and early Friday morning, leaving conditions hotter than ever.

In the shops of the city conditions were all but unbearable.

There was but a slight sprinkle in the city in the early afternoon, aithough there was a sharp shower at the state hospital. New London got the full benefit of the atorm. The nearest to a hurricane that city has had in in a long time struck on at 3.15, when in a half gaie from the southwest everything movable had to go. The wind filled the streets with dust so that it was impossible to see from one side to the other. Then came a downpour, though it continued but a few minutes. In the jall yard a tree went down and at the foot of Jay street there was a similar wreck. All over town there was a smashing of window shutters and roof scuttles went into the street.

Pedestrians sought sheller to get away from the flerce blow, and from the dust that was blinding until the rain came.

At 3.45 the storm had passed over and the sky was olear. Frank W. Browning's family of Lin-coin avenue have taken a cottage at Fishers island for August. Mrs. C. S. Blackmar and Miss Blackmar of Attawaugan visited Mrs. C. H. Frisbie in Norwich this week. Miss Marjorle W. Browning of Lin-coin avenue has returned from North-field, Mass., and Laurel beach, Conn. whal, owned by C. H. Gagood. Little or no damage was done.

A number of boats along the shore overturned and the flagstaff at Fort Trumbull and one at Ocean Beach were blown down. No reports of any fafalities have been received.

The East Lyme trolley road was put out of commission for two hours and the Montville line for an hour.

The Montville line was not running for an hour, as a tree falling at Williams and Cole streets in New London broke the trolley wire. Mrs. C. H. Hilliams, who was on her way home, was knocked down by the wire, which struck a basket she was carrying, and she had a forfunate escape with a few bruises.
